OLD BUSINESS:

The Planning Commission discussed at length the townships vision for a proposed ADU (Accessory Dwelling Units) as well as an ECHO (Elderly Cottage Housing Opportunity) ordinance. The following points were considered: These were open discussions and none of the following was voted on or finalized:

- Whether to utilize a 50% square foot allotment of the principal structure, or a max square footage? (Yes)
- Maximum person occupancy? (No)
- Maximum bedroom limit? (Deidre expressed a desire to limit the number of bedrooms)

- Whether to allow permanent standalone-detached ADU's (freestanding) (Yes, assuming it meets the setback requirements)
- Same well? (Yes, subject to the Health Department Regulations)
- Same Septic? (Yes, subject to the Health Department Regulations)
- Whether to be removed after use if detached or in accessory structure? (No, difficult to enforce)
- Whether owner has to live on property (owner-resident requirement)? (Yes)
- Additional number of parking spaces? (Two?)
- Minimum acreage requirements? (Two?)
- Allowable Zoning Districts? (All)
- Short Term Rental Implications? (None)
- ADU Entrance Locations? (No)
- Annual Permitting Requirements? (No)
- Recorded Agreements / administrative efforts? (No)
- Whether household employees should be an allowable occupant or other types of users? (No)
- Marriage, divorce, and blood relation proof / implications? (No, difficult to enforce)
- How to define exterior appearances? Deidre express some concerns about an ADU or ECHO home not replicating the characteristics of the home or neighborhood)
- Potential Setbacks? (Match existing setbacks requirements)
- Tax Implications? (Yes)
- Height Restrictions? (No)
- Special Exemptions or requirements for large farm lots? (No)
- If the ADU share a wall or if it can be attached by a breezeway? (???)
- Potential ADU Expansions (Limit one)

NEW BUSINESS:

Casey gave a brief update on the property owned by Daniel Dienner located at 110 Norton Drive. Mr Dienner is proposing to construct a second dwelling to accommodate in-law quarters and is requesting a waiver. Benue made a motion to recommend to the BOS a waiver of section 22-202 of the subdivision and land development ordinance pertaining to the definition of land development. Aaron Zook seconded. The motion carried 4-2
